

period and receive the approval of the application from academic units in charge of academic credit programs. Then, students can select courses of academic credit programs online.

5. In order to obtain the certificates of the academic credit programs, students who complete all required subjects and receive all credits for those courses can file an application with